Yom Kippur - Monday, September 28

10 a.m. Yom Kippur Morning service and Torah Reading

12:15 p.m. Study and reflection with Dayne Samuels

Dayne will lead us in study appropriate to the day.

2:00 p.m. Family Service

Interactive, joyous, welcoming service for all ages, including traditional and contemporary music, interactive worship, story, and prayers for healing and for mourners.

5:00 p.m. Yizkor Service of Memory and Reflection

Our yizkor service is about an hour and includes music, prayer, candles, and periods of quiet contemplation. Please note: we no longer read aloud a list of those we wish to remember. Instead, all who are present are invited to share the names of their loved ones aloud. You may wish to bring a written list along to help you recall everyone. You are also invited to submit photos of your loved ones for inclusion in a photo montage during the service.

6:15 p.m. Neilah – Closing Service

We approach the close of the day with renewed energy and commitment, and conclude at about 7:00pm with Havdalah and New Year blessings.
